

Northland Christian 9th-12th Grade

Senior High Graduation Requirements

The table below contains the number of credits within each subject area that are required for your student to graduate from Northland Christian School. The graduation requirements were created to provide each student with a solid background in all core areas, preparing them for all phases of life after high school. It is important for parents and students to check with each prospective college your student may attend for specific admissions requirements and transfer of credits.
